VOL. IV. NO. 118.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

IMP'S SPEED AGAIN SHOWN.

It was hot and sultry yesterday at Lakeside and the track was ankle deep in slushy mud.

Only two favorites, Imp and Meddler, won. The former was at a prohibition price, too, the best odds being 1 to 6. There was nothing to the race. Turner just sat still and held Imp's head up and she cantered home.

Meddler was a 7 to 10 chance for the last race. He had to be a good horse to win as he did. Sullivan got him off none too well and encountered a lot of bad luck down the back stretch. He found an opening on the far turn, then the horse came on and won easily.

The mile three-year old race attracted a lot of attention and hot betting. The Dauphin opened at 7 to 5, but was played down to even money. Candleblack, despite his bad race on Tuesday, was well supported at 8 to 5. Bounding also had a smart following at 3 to 1. Troil was played from 60 to 15 to 1. The Dauphin went to the front on the first turn and under a pull, which settled him, set a merry pace to the stretch, when he went to pieces. Bloss was a waiting race on Bounding, and coming away when the field was straightened for home, beat Candleblack as he pleased.

Vie Lamont at 20 to 1 and Vanessa at 10 to 1 won the first two races.

There was a lot of speed in the fourth race, for which Miss Gussie was made the favorite. The filly ran a fair race but labored in the going and finished third to Dave Waldo and Lizzie Cavalier.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Even the conservative English turf is falling in line with modern progress, and has now adopted the number system of distinguishing the horses. The following notice to this effect was recently posted at Newmarket: "In order to assist the public in identifying in the paddock the horses running at the meeting, the Newmarket stewards have given instructions for the distribution of badges bearing numbers corresponding with those on the card, such badges to be strapped to the arm of the lad riding or leading the horse. Any lad refusing to comply with these instructions will be reported to the stewards. The stewards request that trainers will do their best to facilitate this arrangement, and make a point of returning the badges."—Morning Telegraph.

Rubicon recently changed owners in a way that was hardly creditable to those concerned if the following from a 'Frisco newspaper is correct. "The turfmen were highly amused yesterday at the clever way in which the Widder stable secured the well-known race horse Rubicon for $300 at sheriff's sale. With the exception of Trainer Short, there was not a single racing man at the sale. Racing was going on at Oakland and the horse was sold at Ingleside, the only outsider present being one of Galen Brown's rubbers, who only had $10 with him and could not afford to take chances by bidding. He was present by accident and not by request. As the horse cost Widder & Co., $2,500 and was sold for $300, it is extremely probable that the sale will be set aside by the courts, particularly as it is common gossip that several well-known race horse owners were willing to go to $1,500 or $2,000 for the crack weight-packer."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

E. D. McSweeney has sued Samuel Hildreth and P. G. Lynch for possession of the chestnut mare St. Callatine, from Calatine by St. Carlo. McSweeney alleges that the defendants wrongfully came into possession of the mare at the Emeryville racetrack on the 6th inst. and refuse to deliver the same to him. If the mare be not returned the plaintiff asks for $2,000, the value of the animal, and $3,000 damages. McSweeney alleges that he has owned St. Callatine ever since she was foaled.—San Francisco Examiner.

The American horses which are eligible to start in the English Derby on May 25 are August Belmont's Bridegroom II., ch. c, by Rayon d'Or—St. Bridget; P. Lorillard's Elfin, b. c, by Sensation—Equality, by Rayon d'Or; James R. Keene's Uriel, br. c, by Sheen—Katherine II, and J. S. Curtis' Archduke II, b. c, by Luke Blackburn—Duchess. Uriel, while being exercised a short time since, struck his knee, and had to be let up a while, though it is hoped he will be in shape on Derby day.

Gideon & Daly have announced that they will sell all of their 2-year-olds at auction this fall. It will be their policy hereafter to sell the get of His Highness and Ludwigshafen at the close of their career as 2-year-olds, first training and racing them so that purchasers will know what they are buying. It is a shrewd plan and likely to pay better than yearling sales. With a few like High Degree and Jean Beraud to sell each year Gideon & Daly's sale averages would run into high figures.

By way of accounting for recent bad running of Candelaria and Colonel Dan the San Francisco Examiner says: "McCormick says Colonel Dan has recently been unnerved and Candelaria has suffered from the mouth disease so much that a couple of weeks ago he was afraid it was all over with the colt. Had the public known the facts earlier the odds might have been different."

It may be that the Latonia track will turn out the winner of the Oakley Derby. Talbot Brothers' Sir Dixon—Brightlight colt John Bright is reported as doing some very fast work at the Kenton County track, and will be a sure starter in the big Derby. John Bright showed himself to be a good colt as a 2-year-old, and is said to be a greatly improved horse this season.—Enquirer.

The starters for the Belmont Stakes at Morris Park, May 26, will probably be Hamburg, The Huguenot, Bowling Brook, Previous and one or two lesser lights. The four named are of sufficient fame to attract a great crowd and good enough to insure a smashing race which even the mighty Hamburg may find none too easy to win.

Owners and trainers are cautioned against employing or harboring one Harry Rymal, white, 16 years old, upon whom I have a three-years' contract, he having run away from my stable without any cause. Edward Ross, Detroit, Mich.

During the twenty-one days' racing at Newport, Ky., there were twenty selling race "boosts," and the Queen City Jockey Club's half interest in the surplus over the entered prices aggregated $2,327.50.

Charley Thorpe will ride for Barney Schreiber until the Burns & Waterhouse horses are ready for action over the Chicago tracks. Thorpe will arrive in St. Louis next week.

One hundred horses will be shipped from California to Montana in the next month. "Daggie" Smith will take Torsida, Paul Pry, Don Luis and five or six others.

Lenep is reported to have worked a mile and an eighth over the Louisville track Monday in 1:56. It was his trial for the Oaks, and a good one.

Starter H. D. (Curley) Brown was married Monday to Miss Fanny M. Keating of Covington, Ky.

The Brewer looked dangerous a furlong out, but failed badly when the final test came. George T Todd was going well at the finish. Sister Josephine seems to be of no account. Annie Oldfield showed speed.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ben Strome—Briar.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. The first four were driving hard. The winner saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. Charlo and The Hub came very wide on the turn. Both were staggering at the finish. Charlo has a lot of speed, but is a coward. The Hub doesn't seem to be of much account. Rex Kriepe showed a sharp turn of speed the first part of it. Money Back was off poorly and poorly ridden. It was a very ordinary lot.
Scratched—Lemmon, 101; St. Francis, 105; Dixie Dinmont, 97.
Overweights—The Hub, 2 pounds; Rex Kriepe, 3½; Bald Ned, 3; J. J. T., 2½.

Winner—B. f, 4, by Belvidere—Contralto.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. It was a driving finish. Vanessa was best handled. She was the gamest of the lot, too. Elsie Bramble made up a lot of ground in the last sixteenth. She never got through until a sixteenth from home. Warren Point ran his usual honest race. John Conroy had no excuses. He simply was not good enough to win. Jay Bird suffered from bad luck and bad riding both. He was pumped out making up ground down the back stretch. C. H. Whelan did not run his race. He had a lot of bad racing luck though. Blue Jacket had a lot of speed and will bear watching on a fast track.
Scratched—Daily Racing Form, 93; Minerva, 99; Olivia L, 97; Theresa H, 100; Pinchback, 101; Dagmar, 95.
Overweights—Jay Bird, 2½ pounds; C. H. Whelan, 4; Elsie Bramble, 2; Millie M, 3.

Winner—Ch. c, by Boundless—Zizi.
Off at first break to a good start. Won well in hand; the next two were driving. Bounding showed himself to be a real good colt and not so badly wind-broken as rumor has it. Bloss rode the colt with rare judgment, too. He saved him nicely the first half and picked the good going through the stretch. Shepherd's ride on The Dauphin was bad. He choked the colt almost to exhaustion down the back stretch, and was in the deep going all the way. Candleblack improved suddenly. He seems to favor soft going. The race was strictly between the first three all the way.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Sayre—Helianthus.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Bounding showed himself to be a real good colt and not so badly wind-broken as rumor has it. Bloss rode the colt with rare judgment, too. He saved him nicely the first half and picked the good going through the stretch. Shepherd's ride on The Dauphin was bad. Winner—Blk. f, 4, by Wagner—Fondling.
Off at first break to a perfect start. Won pulled up. It was a long hard drive for the place. Imp just cantered all the way. On the far turn she was a sixteenth of a mile in front of her field. She is about the fastest horse at the track right now. Kirk ran a good race. He was under punishment the last half. There was some bumping between him and Arrezzo in the stretch, but not enough to cause damage. The betting on the race was mostly done with the favorite out. In those books Arrezzo was a 1 to 2 shot and Kirk at 7 to 5.
Scratched—Indra, 111.

Winner—Ch. g, 7, by Long Taw—Meddle.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a long hard drive for the place. Meddle was far the best otherwise he could not have won. Sullivan messed him about considerably down the back stretch but took a long chance and got through on the far turn. Jennie June had no excuses. She was simply short. The race will do her a lot of good. Trocha ran a good race. So did Locust Blossom, who was off poorly and badly ridden. Watch Carrie F in cheaper company. She had a lot of speed and ran a much better race than the figures show. Fair Deceiver won't do at all just now. She swerved badly and was eased up in the stretch. Suisun looks good and can be put on the tab.
Scratched—Lucy Belle, 107; Lillian E, 105; Inetatus, 107; Tit for Tat, 102; Diggs, 104; Barataria, 99.

Time, 24½, 36½, 51½, 58.

Winner—Ch. f. by Emperor of Norfolk—Espirito Santo.

Start good. Hard drive between the first two. The track suited Magdalenes best. She was full of speed. Malay was closing at the finish. He favors a route and a harder track. Oraibee can be tabbed for a good track. Stopped at end after much use as if short. Parasseuse again showed cowardice. E Come might have won with fair luck and a good ride. Was eased up at end after being cut off at start and on stretch turn.

Scratched—Osculation, 90; Leo Verner, 90; Also Ran II, 93.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:04½, 1:18½.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Apache—Lina.

Start good. Won in a drive; second handily. Castake is a good mudlark, was lucky in the race and is in good condition. Dan has been nerved lately and may not have fully recovered. Needs a strong jockey—something he did not have today. Throw his race out as having any bearing on his best capacity. Andrew made up a lot of lost ground. Is in good condition. Formella likes a soft track. Don Gara showed some early speed.

Scratched—Sierra Blanco, 95; Fig Leaf, 105; Roy Carruthers, 107; Alvin E, 107; Major Cook, 109.
